New York City, Oct. 9, 1897. Gentlemen-I think it but fair to you that I bear testimony to the beneficial results of my use of Paine's celery compound. Two years ago I was almost a wreck from nervous prostration, resulting from overwork, mental and physical. I had lost my memory completely, and friends feared I would never recover. After trying several remedies to no avail, my physician prescribed Paine's celery compound, and within a few days there was a decided improvement in my After the use of three bottles I was so much betzens' Association: "On behalf of the Citizens' Northwest Suburban Association, composed of property owners west of Rock creek. I have to request that you will advise me of the earliest date that plat No. 3 of the street extension will be filed for record. The delay in filing this plat is causing a great financial loss to our section of the Dis- $17,000. trict, and absolutely blocks all contemplated improvements. Until the streets in this section are located, as provided by law, property owners are unable to subdivide their property or improve the streets. Besides, purchasers are waiting until this plat is on record to determine how the property will be affected by prospective streets and avenues.

The delay on your part is causing tremendous embarrassment to our people, and in some cases property has been sacrificed. It is of the utmost importance that you should have expedited the record of this plat, and thereby remove the excessive burdens which are crushing the owners of property in this section. An early receipt of this information will be appreciated, in order to allow the same to be presented at our next meeting.

Dr. Rooker, secretary to Archbishop Martinelli, said to-day to a Star reporter that so far as the apostolic delegation is aware there is no reason to believe that any change whatever is contemplated.

LONDON, November 20,-The dog muzzl is admittedly playing a very important part in the politics of Great Britain, the discontent of dog owners at the rigorous muzzling orders, which now have been two years in force, having raised the muzzle to the dignity of a grave, political question. There is abundant evidence that it influenced the recent by-elections, and that it is generally disturbing the peace of the ministers. The Marquis of Salisbury, during the course of

last, admitted this, in his usual cynical style, and on Thursday night the minister of agriculture, Mr. Walter Long, speaking at a large political meeting, devoted his entire speech to a defense of his position. He quoted statistics showing the rapid decrease of rables since the introduction of the order. In 1895, he said, there were 608 cases of rables in England, adding that in 1897 there were only 141 cases, while of these only 51 have occurred since June.

The Times devotes a leading article to the question, which concludes:

"We can hardly believe that, even among the imbecilities of a contested election, the muzzling order could be paraded against

An Ecclesiastical Drama.

An episode of peculiar interest was the enactment by clergymen on Wednesday last, in Canterbury Hall, of the first church play in recent years. It was entitled, "The Conversion of England," written by the tine. The costumes, scenery and chants were historically accurate, being the result of researches in the museums of Loudon, Dresden and Stockholm. The play is described as a "dreary entertainment."

Various theories are advanced for the failure of London theaters to pay, the most credited one being that the increase of suburban play houses is keeping suburban play goers at home. Another factor which unquestionably counts is the price charged for seats. An orchestra stall in a London theater costs ten shillings ($2.50).

The joy caused among the charitable institutions last week by the probating of the will of the late Mr. John Thomas Morton, a big jam and provision exporter, who left i500,000 ($2,500,000) to charity, to the exclusion of his heirs, had a curious setback in the case of the Moravian Church Missions, whose bequest of f250,000 ($1,250,000) promises to be a white elephant of the most for midable affectedly kind.
